China Workshops

Barn Owls, Tawny Owls and Screech Owls had a great day on Tuesday doing a range of activities connected to their text The Firework Maker's Daughter. Check out the class Blog and school Facebook page to see some photos.

Drama Workshops

Five of our classes took part in some drama workshops today. They were provided by the Helen O'Grady Drama Academy. They offer a free trial if your child is interested in trying local drama classes where they can meet new friends, speak and move confidently and improve their English language skills. Call 0114 2706802 for more information.

Have a great half term holiday
